

Company maintenance

Each year you are required to file an annual return.

In addition it is recommended you update company information including director, shareholder and address details.

File an annual return

As a limited liability company, a company must file an Annual Return with the Companies Office each year in June to maintain its registration. If an Annual Return is not filed by the due date, the company risks being removed from the Register of Companies.

Read more...

Update company details

A Niue company is required to keep the company details held on the Niue Register of Companies up to date. This can be done easily with the right forms.

Read more...

Remove a company from the Niue register

A company may close for many reasons. This information provides reasons for company closures, what companies need to consider before closing down and outlines the process for removing and restoring a company as well as liquidation and receivership.

Read more...