29 Recovery of improper distributions

- (1) A distribution made to a shareholder in breach of sections 28, 30, or 31 may be recovered by the company from the shareholder unless—

 - (b) the shareholder has altered the shareholder's position in reliance on the validity of the distribution; and

- (3) If, in an action brought under this section, the Court is satisfied that the company could, by making a distribution of a lesser amount, have satisfied the requirements of section 28, the Court may permit a shareholder to retain, or excuse a person who authorised the distribution from liability in respect of, an amount equal to the value of any distribution that could properly have been made.

Dividends

 - (a) in respect of some, but not all, shares; or
 - (b) that is of a greater value per share in respect of some shares than of others.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not apply if the payment of that dividend in that manner is approved by all shareholders under section 51.
- (5) In this section, dividend means any distribution other than—

- (1) Despite anything in this Act, but subject to the order, if the Court makes an order under section 102 altering or adding to the rules of a company, the rules must not, to the extent that they have been altered or added to by the Court, again be altered or added to without the leave of the Court.
- (2) Any alteration or addition to the rules of a company made by an order under section 102 has the same effect as if it had been made by the shareholders of the company under section 14, and this Act applies to the rules as altered or added to.
- (3) Within 10 working days of the making of an order under section 102 altering or adding to the rules of a company, the company must ensure that a copy of the order and a copy of the rules as altered or added to are delivered to the Registrar for registration.
- (4) If a company fails to comply with subsection (3),—

Certain applications

105 Effect of arbitration clause in rules

A shareholder is entitled to apply to the Court for relief under sections 91 to 100 and 102 despite any provision in the rules of a company requiring disputes relating to the affairs of the company to be referred to arbitration, or otherwise seeking to prohibit the shareholder from making the application.

106 Application for relief by Registrar

- (1) The Registrar may apply to the Court for an order in respect of a public company under sections 91 to 100 and 102 as if the Registrar were a shareholder of that company if—
 - (a) the Registrar is requested to do so in writing by a shareholder or shareholders who would be entitled to make the application in question; and
 - (b) the Registrar considers that it is in the public interest that the application be made; and
 - (c) the Registrar considers that it is unreasonable to expect the person or persons making the request to pursue the application themselves.
- (2) If the Registrar considers that the persons making a request under subsection (1) should bear some of the costs of any application to be made by the Registrar under this section, the Registrar may require them to pay an amount towards those costs, or to enter into an agreement to contribute to those costs. If they fail to do so, the Registrar may decline to make the application, or to take any further steps in relation to the application.
- (3) If an application made by the Registrar under this section results in an award of costs or any other monetary award in favour of the Registrar or the company or the shareholders of the company, the Registrar has a first claim on that award for payment of the costs incurred by the Registrar in making the application.

Part 7

Administration of companies

- (i) 2 or more directors of the company; or
 - (ii) if there is only 1 director, by that director, whose signature must be witnessed; or
 - (iii) if the rules of the company so provide, a director, or other person or class of persons. If the rules provide for signature by 1 person, that person's signature must be witnessed; or
 - (iv) 1 or more attorneys appointed by the company in accordance with section 108:
- (b) an obligation that, if entered into by a natural person, is, by law, required to be in writing, may be entered into on behalf of the company—

- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) prevents a company from affixing its common seal to a contract or document, if it has one. But despite anything in the rules of the company, the absence of a seal does not affect the enforceability of an obligation entered into in accordance with subsection (1).
 - (3) Subsection (1) applies to a contract or other obligation whether or not—
 - (a) that contract or obligation was entered into in Niue; and
 - (b) the law governing the contract or obligation is the law of Niue.

108 Attorneys

- (1) Subject to its rules, a company may, by an instrument in writing executed in accordance with section 107(1)(a), appoint a person as its attorney either generally or in relation to a specified matter.
- (2) An act of the attorney in accordance with the instrument binds the company.
- (3) Part XII of the Property Law Act 1952 applies, with the necessary modifications, in relation to a power of attorney executed by a company to the same extent as if the company was a natural person and as if the commencement of the liquidation or, if there is no liquidation, the removal from the Niue register, of the company was the death of a person within the meaning of that Part.

109 Validity of dealings with third parties

- (1) Subject to sections 111 and 112, the validity of a transaction entered into by a company is not affected by—

 - (b) a failure to comply with the company's rules:
 - (c) the absence of express authority to enter into the transaction in the company's rules:
 - (d) a failure by the company or its directors to take any steps required by the company's rules to authorise entry into the transaction:

- (c) section 99 (which relates to actions by shareholders against a company); or
 - (d) section 100 (which relates to actions by shareholders against directors); or

 - (iii) remuneration or other benefits given to a director in accordance with section 89.

110 Assumptions that may be made by third parties

- (1) Without limiting section 109, neither a company nor any person claiming under or through a company, nor a guarantor of an obligation of a company, may assert against a person dealing with the company or against a person who has acquired property, rights, or interests from the company that—
- (a) a person named as a director of the company in the most recent notice received by the Registrar under section 88 or in the most recent annual return delivered to the Registrar—
 - (i) is not a director of a company; or
 - (ii) has not been duly appointed; or
 - (iii) does not have authority to exercise a power that a director of a company carrying on business of the kind carried on by the company customarily has authority to exercise:
 - (b) a person held out by the company as a director, employee, or agent of the company—

 - (ii) does not have authority to exercise a power that a director, employee, or agent of a company carrying on business of the kind carried on by the company customarily has authority to exercise:
 - (c) a person held out by the company as a director, employee, or agent of the company with authority to exercise a power that a director, employee, or agent of a company carrying on business of the kind carried on by the company does not customarily have authority to exercise, does not have authority to exercise that power:
 - (d) a document issued on behalf of a company by a director, employee, or agent of the company with actual or usual authority to issue the document is not valid or not genuine,—
- unless the person has, or ought to have by virtue of his or her position with or relationship to the company, knowledge of the matters referred to in any of paragraphs (a) to (d).
- (2) Subsection (1) applies even though a person of the kind referred to in that subsection acts fraudulently or forges a document that appears to have been signed on behalf of the company, unless the person dealing with the company or with a person who has acquired property, rights, or interests from the company has actual knowledge of the fraud or forgery.

- (3) A person is not affected by, or deemed to have notice or knowledge of the contents of, the rules of, or any other document relating to, a company merely because the rules or document are—
- (a) registered on the Niue register; or
 - (b) available for inspection by that person under subpart 2.

111 Transactions in which directors are interested

- (1) A transaction entered into by a company in which a director is directly or indirectly materially interested is voidable at the option of the company, unless—
- (a) this Act or the company's rules expressly authorise entry into the transaction despite such an interest; or
 - (b) the transaction has been entered into with the approval of shareholders under section 51 following disclosure of the nature and extent of the director's interest to all shareholders who were not otherwise aware of those matters; or
 - (c) the other party to the transaction is a person other than the director or a person associated with the director and either—
 - (i) that person did not know of the interest of the director; or
 - (ii) the company received fair value under the transaction.
- (2) For the purposes of this section and section 112, a person is associated with a director if the director—
- (a) is the parent, child, or spouse of that person; or
 - (b) is a director, employee, or trustee of that person; or
 - (c) has a material financial interest in that other person.

112 Transactions entered into by directors in breach of certain duties

A transaction entered into by a company as the result of action taken by a director in breach of sections 65, 66, or 67 is voidable at the option of the company if—

- (a) the other party to the transaction is the director or a person associated with the director; or
- (b) the other party to the transaction is a person with knowledge of the circumstances giving rise to the breach of sections 65, 66, or 67, and the company did not receive fair value under the transaction.

113 Effect on third parties

The setting aside of a transaction under sections 111 or 112 does not affect the title or interest of a person in or to property that the person has acquired if the property was acquired—

- (a) from a person other than the company; and
- (b) for valuable consideration; and
- (c) without knowledge of the circumstances that entitle the company to set aside the transaction under which the property was acquired from the company.

114 Pre-incorporation contracts may be ratified

- (3) A pre-incorporation contract that is ratified is as valid and enforceable as if the company had been a party to the contract when it was made.
- (4) A pre-incorporation contract may be ratified by a company in the same manner as a contract may be entered into on behalf of a company under section 107.
- (5) Despite any other Act, if a pre-incorporation contract has not been ratified by a company, or validated by the Court under section 116, the company may not enforce it or take the benefit of it.

115 Warranties implied in pre-incorporation contracts

- (1) Despite any enactment or rule of law, in a pre-incorporation contract, unless a contrary intention is expressed in the contract, there is an implied warranty by the person who purports to make the contract in the name of, or on behalf of, the company—
 - (a) that the company will be incorporated within the period specified in the contract or, if no period is specified, within a reasonable time after the making of the contract; and
 - (b) that the company will ratify the contract within the period specified in the contract or, if no period is specified, within a reasonable time after the incorporation of the company.
- (2) The amount of damages recoverable in an action for breach of a warranty implied by subsection (1) is the same as the amount of damages that would be recoverable in an action against the company for damages for breach by the company of any unperformed obligations under the contract if the contract had been ratified.
- (3) If, after its incorporation, a company enters into a contract in the same terms as, or in substitution for, a pre-incorporation contract (not being a contract ratified by the company under section 114), the liability of a person under subsection (1) (including any liability under an order made by the Court for the payment of damages) is discharged unless a contrary intention is expressed in the pre-incorporation contract.

116 Failure to ratify

- (1) A party to a pre-incorporation contract that has not been ratified by the company after its incorporation may apply to the Court for an order—
 - (a) directing the company to return to that party property of any kind acquired by the company from that party by virtue of the contract; or
 - (b) for any other relief in favour of that party relating to the property.
- (2) The Court may, if it considers it just and equitable to do so, make any order or grant any relief that it thinks fit and may do so whether or not an order has been made under section 115(2).

Watershed meeting

184 What is watershed meeting

The watershed meeting is the meeting of creditors called by the administrator to decide the future of the company and, in particular, whether the company and creditors should enter into a compromise under subpart 2.

185 Administrator must convene watershed meeting

- (1) The administrator must convene the watershed meeting within the convening period.
- (2) The convening period is the period of 20 working days after the date on which the administrator is appointed, and includes any period for which it is extended under subsection (3).

- (3) The Court may, on the administrator's application, extend the convening period, but must not do so if the application is made after the convening period has expired, unless the Court is satisfied that a substantial injustice will result if the convening period is not extended.

186 Notice of watershed meeting

- (1) The administrator must convene the watershed meeting by—
 - (a) giving written notice of the meeting to as many of the company's creditors as reasonably practicable; and
 - (b) publishing a notice of the meeting in a national newspaper.
- (2) The administrator must take the steps in subsection (1) not less than 5 working days before the meeting.
- (3) The notice given to creditors under subsection (1)(a) must be accompanied by—
 - (a) a report by the administrator about the company's business, property, affairs, and financial circumstances and setting out the basis of remuneration or proposed remuneration of the administrator; and
 - (b) a statement setting out the administrator's opinion (including his or her reasons for the opinion) about each of the following matters:
 - (i) whether it would be in the creditors' interests for the company to enter into a compromise that is binding on the company and its creditors or a class of creditors:
 - (ii) whether it would be in the creditors' interests for the administration to end:
 - (iii) whether it would be in the creditors' interests for a liquidator of the company to be appointed; and
 - (c) if a compromise is proposed, a statement setting out details of the proposed compromise in accordance with section 205(2)(b), but it is not necessary for the administrator to give a separate notice under that section; and
 - (d) a copy of the list or lists of creditors referred to in section 178.

187 When watershed meeting must be held

- (1) The watershed meeting must be held within 5 working days after the end of the convening period or extended convening period, as the case may be.
- (2) The watershed meeting may be adjourned, but only to a day that is not more than 30 working days after the first day on which the meeting was held.
- (3) However, the Court may, on the administrator's application, order that the meeting be adjourned for more than 30 working days.

188 What creditors may decide at watershed meeting

- (1) At a watershed meeting, the creditors may resolve—
 - (a) to approve a compromise that is binding on its creditors or a class of creditors as specified in the resolution (even if it differs from the proposed compromise (if any), details of which accompanied the notice of meeting, as a result of any amendment adopted at the meeting); or
 - (b) that the administration should end; or
 - (c) if the administrator has so recommended, that a liquidator of the company be appointed.

- (2) Despite anything in Schedule 12,—
- (a) a resolution for the purposes of subsection (1)(a) is adopted if a majority in number and value of the creditors or class of creditors, voting in person or by proxy, vote in favour of the resolution; and
 - (b) section 206(3) applies to such a resolution.

End of administration

189 When administration ends

The administration of a company ends on the happening of whichever event of a kind referred to in sections 190 or 191 happens first after the administration begins.

190 Normal way for administration to end

The normal outcome of the administration of a company is that—

- (a) a compromise is approved by creditors that is binding on the company and its creditors or a class of creditors; or
- (b) the company's creditors resolve that the administration should end; or
- (c) the company's creditors resolve that a liquidator of the company be appointed.

191 Other ways in which administration may end

The administration of a company may also end because—

- (a) the Court orders that the administration is to end, for example, because the Court is satisfied that the company is solvent; or
- (b) the convening period for a watershed meeting ends—
 - (i) without the meeting being convened in accordance with section 186; and
 - (ii) without an application being made for the Court to extend the convening period for the watershed meeting; or
- (c) an application for the Court to extend the convening period is finally determined or otherwise disposed of other than by the Court extending the convening period; or
- (d) the convening period, as extended, ends without the meeting being convened in accordance with section 186; or
- (e) a watershed meeting called under section 184 ends (whether or not it was earlier adjourned) without a resolution under section 188(1) being passed at the meeting; or
- (f) the Court appoints an interim liquidator of the company or appoints a liquidator of the company.

192 Notice of end of administration

If a meeting of the company's creditors resolves that the administration should end, or resolves that a liquidator be appointed, the administrator must, immediately after the declaration of the result of the resolution of creditors,—

- (a) lodge a notice with the Registrar that the administration is at an end or that a liquidator has been appointed, as the case may be; and
- (b) cause a public notice to be published that the administration is at an end or that a liquidator has been appointed, as the case may be.

193 Effect of creditors' resolution approving compromise

If, at a creditors' meeting, a company's creditors approve a compromise,—

- (a) the administrator of the company is the administrator under the compromise unless the creditors, by resolution passed at the meeting, appoint someone else to be administrator under the compromise; and
- (b) the administrator must prepare a document setting out the terms of the compromise (compromise document).

194 Contents of compromise document

The compromise document must specify all the following:

- (a) the administrator of the compromise and the basis for determining his or her remuneration:
- (b) the property of the company (whether or not already owned by the company when it executes the deed) that is to be available to pay creditors' claims:
- (c) the nature and duration of any moratorium period for which the compromise provides:
- (d) to what extent (if any) the company is to be released from its debts:
- (e) the conditions (if any) for the compromise to come into operation:
- (f) the conditions (if any) for the compromise to continue in operation:
- (g) the circumstances in which the compromise terminates:
- (h) the order in which proceeds of realising the property referred to in paragraph (b) will be distributed among creditors bound by the compromise:
- (i) the day (not later than the day when the administration began) on or before which creditors' claims must have arisen if they are to be admissible under the compromise:
- (j) any other matters prescribed by regulations.

195 Application of subpart 2 to compromise proposed by administrator

The provisions of subpart 2 apply to a compromise proposed by an administrator except as expressly modified or excluded by this subpart.

 - (iii) any receiver of the company; and
 - (iv) any liquidator of the company; and
 - (b) give public notice of the result of the voting of the creditors; and
 - (c) give written notice of the voting of the creditors to, and lodge a copy of the compromise document with, the Registrar.
- (2) Every person who fails to comply with subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding 50 penalty units.

197 Creditors' resolution approving appointment of liquidator

- (1) If a company's creditors approve the appointment of a liquidator,—
- (a) subject to subsection (3), the administrator is the liquidator with effect from the date and time at which the resolution is passed; and
 - (b) the liquidator need not—
 - (i) call a meeting of creditors; or
 - (ii) give a notice under section 237(1); or
 - (iii) give public notice if the liquidator has lodged a notice with the Registrar under section 237(2); but
 - (c) except as expressly provided otherwise, subpart 3 applies, with the necessary modifications, to the liquidation.
- (2) The administrator must record the time and date at which the resolution was passed or the contravention occurred, and the time and date at which the administration begins.
- (3) The creditors may, by resolution, appoint a named person other than the administrator to be the liquidator of the company. If that person has consented in writing to the appointment before it is made, that person is the liquidator with effect from the date and time at which the resolution is passed. Otherwise, that person becomes liquidator with effect from the date and time at which he or she consents in writing to the appointment, and until such time the administrator is the liquidator in accordance with subsection (1).

198 Notice of appointment of liquidator

Within 10 working days after the day on which the liquidator is appointed at a creditors' meeting, the liquidator must lodge with the Registrar a written notice—

- (a) stating that a liquidator of the company has been appointed; and

201 General power to make orders

(1) The Court may, on any conditions that it thinks fit, make any order that it thinks appropriate about how this subpart is to operate in relation to the administration of a particular company (for example, that the administration of the company is to end).

(2) An order may be made on the application of—

- (3) If a resolution proposing a compromise, including any amendment, is put to the vote of more than 1 class of creditors, it is to be presumed, unless the contrary is expressly stated in the resolution, that the approval of the compromise, including any amendment, by each class is conditional on the approval of the compromise, including any amendment, by every other class voting on the resolution.
- (4) The proponent must give written notice of the result of the voting to each known creditor, the company, any receiver or liquidator, and the Registrar.

207 Variation of compromise

- (1) An approved compromise may be varied or terminated either—

- (3) The Court may order that the creditor is not bound by the compromise or make any other order that it thinks fit if the Court is satisfied, on the application of a creditor of a company who was entitled to vote on a compromise, that—
 - (a) not enough notice of the meeting or of the matter required to be notified under section 205 was given to that creditor; or
 - (b) there was some other material irregularity in obtaining approval of the compromise; or

- (c) in the case of a creditor who voted against the compromise, the compromise is unfairly prejudicial to that creditor, or to the class of creditors to which that creditor belongs.
- (4) An application under subsection (3) must be made not later than 10 working days after the date on which notice of the result of the voting was given to the creditor.

 - (b) a receiver appointed in relation to property of the company; or
 - (c) with the leave of the Court, any creditor or shareholder of the company,—make such order as the Court thinks fit with respect to the extent, if any, to which the compromise will, if the company is put into liquidation, continue in effect and be binding on the liquidator of the company.
- (2) If a compromise is approved and the company is later put into liquidation, the Court may, on the application of any person described in subsection (3), make any order that the Court thinks fit with respect to the extent, if any, to which the compromise will continue in effect and be binding on the liquidator of the company.
- (3) The persons referred to in subsection (2) are—

- 2 Administrator has qualified privilege
A person who is, or has been, the administrator of a company has qualified privilege in respect of a statement that he or she has made, whether orally or in writing, in the course of exercising his or her powers, or performing his or her functions, as administrator of the company.
- 3 Administrator may seek directions

- (2) If there are 2 or more administrators of a company,—
 - (a) a function or power of an administrator of the company may be performed or exercised by any 1 of them, or by any 2 or more of them together, except so far as the document or resolution appointing them otherwise provides; and
 - (b) a reference in this Act to an administrator, or to the administrator, of a company is a reference to whichever 1 or more of those administrators the case requires.

5 Exercise of powers, etc, by 2 or more administrators under compromise

If there are 2 or more administrators of a compromise approved under subpart 1 of Part 9,—

- (a) a function or power of an administrator under the compromise may be performed or exercised by any 1 of them, or by any 2 or more of them together, except so far as the document or resolution appointing them otherwise provides; and
- (b) a reference in this Act to an administrator under a compromise is a reference to whichever 1 or more of those administrators the case requires.

Part 2

Powers and functions of administrators

6 General powers of administrator

While a company is under administration, the administrator has control of the company's business, property, and affairs and may—

- (a) carry on the company's business:
- (b) manage the company's property and affairs:
- (c) terminate or dispose of all or any part of the company's business:
- (d) dispose of all or any part of the company's property:
- (e) exercise any power, and perform any function, that the company or any of its officers could perform or exercise if the company were not under administration:
- (f) with leave of the Court, remove from office a director of the company:
- (g) with leave of the Court, appoint a person as a director of the company, whether to fill a vacancy or not:
- (h) execute a document, bring or defend proceedings, or do anything else, in the company's name and on its behalf:
- (i) do whatever else is necessary for the purposes of subpart 1 of Part 9.

7 Limitations on administrator's powers

- (1) If clause 23 of Schedule 10 applies, the administrator's powers and functions are subject to the powers and functions of—
 - (a) the secured creditor; or
 - (b) a receiver or person of a kind referred to in clause 23 of Schedule 10 (even if appointed after the decision period).

- (2) If clause 19 of Schedule 10 applies, then, so far as concerns perishable property of the company, the administrator's powers and functions are subject to the powers and functions of—
- (a) the secured creditor; or
 - (b) a receiver or person appointed (at any time) as mentioned in paragraphs (a), (b), or (d) of the definition of enforce in clause 1 of Schedule 1.
- (3) If clauses 14, 15, or 20 of Schedule 10 apply, then, so far as concerns the property referred to in those clauses, the administrator's powers and functions are subject to the powers and functions of the secured creditor, receiver, or other person.

8 Dealing with property subject to floating charge that has become fixed charge

If a floating charge over property of a company has become a fixed charge, then, subject to this schedule, the administrator may deal with any of that property as if the charge were still a floating charge.

9 When administrator may dispose of encumbered property

- (1) The administrator of a company must not dispose of—
- (a) property of the company that is subject to a charge; or
 - (b) property that is used or occupied by, or is in the possession of, the company but of which someone else is the owner or lessor.
- (2) Subclause (1) does not prevent a disposal—
- (a) in the ordinary course of the company's business if it is authorised by the terms of the relevant charge, agreement authorising use or possession, lease or without agreement of the secured creditor, owner, or lessor; or
 - (b) with the written consent of the secured creditor, owner, or lessor, as the case may be; or
 - (c) with the leave of the Court.
- (3) The Court may give leave under subclause (2)(c) only if it is satisfied that arrangements have been made to protect adequately the interests of the secured creditor, owner, or lessor, as the case may be.

Part 3 Liability of administrators

General liability

10 Administrator not liable in damages for refusing consent

A company's administrator is not liable to an action or other proceeding for damages for refusing to give an approval or consent under subpart 1 of Part 9.

11 Liability of administrator for company's debts

Except as expressly provided in subpart 1 of Part 9 or in this schedule, the administrator of a company is not liable for the company's debts.

12 Liability of administrator for debts incurred by administrator

- (1) The administrator of a company is liable for the debts that the administrator incurs in the exercise of his or her powers, or performance of his or her functions, as administrator for—
- (a) services rendered:

- (b) goods bought:
 - (c) property hired, leased, used, or occupied.
- (2) Subclause (1) has effect despite any agreement to the contrary, but without prejudice to the administrator's rights against the company or anyone else.

Liability for rent, etc

13 Application of clauses 14 to 17

Clauses 14 to 17 apply if, under an agreement made before the administration of a company began, the company continues to use or occupy, or to be in possession of, property of which someone else is the owner or lessor.

14 Liability of administrator for rent

- (1) Subject to this clause, the administrator is liable for that part of the rent or other amounts payable by the company under the agreement referred to in clause 13 for any period—
- (a) that begins more than 10 working days after the administration began; and
 - (b) throughout which—
 - (i) the company continues to use or occupy, or to be in possession of, the property; and
 - (ii) the administration continues.
- (2) Subclause (1) does not apply to so much of a period that elapses after—
- (a) a receiver of the property is appointed; or
 - (b) a secured creditor appoints an agent, under the provisions of a charge on the property, to enter into possession, or to assume control, of the property; or
 - (c) a secured creditor takes possession, or assumes control, of the property under the provisions of a charge on the property.
- (3) Subclause (1) does not apply in so far as a Court, by order, excuses the administrator from liability.
- (4) Subclauses (2) and (3) do not affect the liability of the company.
- (5) The administrator is not taken, because of subclause (1),—
- (a) to have adopted the agreement; or
 - (b) to be liable under the agreement otherwise than as mentioned in subclause (1).

15 Notice stating company does not propose to exercise rights over property

Within 10 working days after the beginning of the administration, the administrator may give to the owner or lessor a notice that—

- (a) specifies the property; and
- (b) states that the company does not propose to exercise rights in relation to the property.

16 Effect of notice

Despite clause 14, the administrator is not liable for so much of the rent or other amounts payable by the company under the agreement that is attributable to a period during which a notice under clause 15 is in force, but such a notice does not affect a liability of the company.

17 When notice ceases to have effect

- (1) A notice under clause 15 ceases to have effect if—
- (a) the administrator revokes it in writing given to the owner or lessor; or
 - (b) the company exercises, or appears to exercise, a right in relation to the property.
- (2) For the purposes of subclause (1), the company does not exercise, or appear to exercise, a right in relation to the property merely because the company continues to occupy, or to be in possession of, the property, unless the company—
- (a) also uses the property; or
 - (b) asserts a right, as against the owner or lessor, so to continue.

Indemnity

18 Administrator is entitled to indemnity

- (1) The administrator of a company is entitled to be indemnified out of the company's property for—
- (a) the debts for which the administrator is liable under this Act; and
 - (b) the costs incurred in relation to holding a meeting of creditors under subpart 1 of Part 9; and
 - (c) his or her remuneration.
- (2) To secure the administrator's indemnity, the administrator has a lien on the company's property.
- (3) An administrator's lien has priority over a charge to the extent that the indemnity has priority over debts secured by the charge.

19 Administrator's indemnity has priority over unsecured debts, etc

- Subject to claims having preference under Part 3 of Schedule 18, an administrator's indemnity has priority over—
- (a) all the company's unsecured debts; and
 - (b) subject to clauses 20 and 21, debts of the company secured by a floating charge on property of the company.

20 Exception for debts secured by floating charge

- An administrator's indemnity does not have priority over debts secured by a floating charge if,—
- (a) before the beginning of the administration, the secured party—
 - (i) appointed a receiver of property of the company under a power contained in the floating charge document concerned; or
 - (ii) obtained an order for the appointment of a receiver of property of the company for the purpose of enforcing the charge; or
 - (iii) entered into possession, or assumed control, of property of the company for the purpose of enforcing the charge; or
 - (iv) appointed a person so to enter into possession or assume control (whether as agent for the secured creditor or for the company); and
 - (b) the receiver or person is still in office, or the secured party is still in possession or control of the property.

21 Extent of administrator's indemnity when floating charge has priority

The extent to which a floating charge has priority over an administrator's indemnity is limited to debts incurred, or remuneration accruing, after the secured party gave written notice to the administrator of the matter specified in clause 20(a) that gave the secured party priority over the indemnity.

Part 2

Effect on company's officers and shareholders, etc

2 Functions and powers of company officers suspended

- (1) Subject to clauses 19, 20(2), 22, and 23(3), while a company is under administration, no person (other than the administrator) may, without the administrator's written approval, perform a function, or exercise a power, as an officer of the company.

- (b) so far as the Court otherwise orders.

4 Restrictions on putting company into liquidation

If a company is under administration,—

- (a) the shareholders and the directors of the company must not appoint a liquidator:
- (b) if the Court is satisfied that it is in the interests of the company's creditors for the company to continue under administration, rather than for a liquidator or an interim liquidator to be appointed, as the case may be,—
 - (i) the Court must adjourn the hearing of an application for an order to appoint a liquidator; and
 - (ii) the Court must not appoint an interim liquidator.

Part 3

Effect on proceedings, etc

5 Stay of civil proceedings

During the administration of a company, a civil proceeding in a Court against the company or in relation to any of its property must not be started or proceeded with, except with—

 - (i) are in the court officer's possession; or
 - (ii) have been paid into the Court and have not since been paid out.
- (2) The costs of the execution or attachment are a first charge on property delivered, or proceeds or money paid, to the administrator.
- (3) In order to give effect to a charge on proceeds or money, the court officer may retain, on behalf of the person entitled to the charge, so much of the proceeds or money as the court officer thinks necessary.
- (4) The Court may, if it is satisfied that it is appropriate to do so, permit the court officer to take action, or to make a payment, that would otherwise be prevented.

Despite anything in clauses 7 and 8, a person who buys property in good faith under a sale under a process of execution gets a good title to the property as against the company and the administrator.

Part 4

Restrictions on dealing with company's property

General provisions

10 Only administrator may deal with company's property

- (1) A transaction or dealing that affects property of a company under administration is void unless—

- (2) An order under subclause (1) may be enforced as if it were a judgment of the Court.
- (3) The defences available under section 76 to relieve a person from liability for an offence referred to in that section extend to relieving a person from liability to be ordered under this clause to pay compensation.

13 Owner or lessor not to recover property used by company

During the administration of a company, the owner or lessor of property that is used or occupied by, or is in the possession of, the company must not take possession of the property or otherwise recover it, except—

- (a) affects perishable property; and
 - (b) is entered into for the purpose of enforcing a right of the owner or lessor of the property to take possession of the property or otherwise recover it.

15 Exception: recovery of property before administration

If, before the beginning of the administration of a company, a receiver or other person, for the purpose of enforcing a right of the owner or lessor of property that is used or occupied by, or in possession of, the company, enters into possession or assumes control of, or exercises any other power in relation to, the property,—

- (a) nothing in clauses 2 or 13 prevents the receiver or other person from performing a function, or exercising a power, in relation to the property; and
- (b) clause 10 does not apply in relation to a transaction or dealing that affects the property and is entered into in the performance of a function, or exercise of a power, of the receiver or other person.

16 Court may limit powers of receiver, etc, in relation to property used by company

- (1) Despite clauses 14 and 15, the Court may, on application by the administrator of a company, order a person not to perform specified functions, or exercise specified powers, in relation to property—

- (b) in respect of which the person, for the purpose of enforcing a right as owner or lessor of the property, has entered into possession, assumed control, or exercised any other power.
- (2) The Court may make an order only if it is satisfied that what the administrator proposes to do during the administration will adequately protect the interests of the owner or lessor.
- (3) An order may be made under this clause, and has effect, only during the administration of the company.

17 Giving notice relating to property used by company

Nothing in clauses 2 or 13 prevents a person from giving a notice to a company under an agreement relating to property that is used or occupied by, or is in the possession of, the company.

- (a) enforce the charge on the perishable property;
- (b) enter into a transaction or dealing that affects the perishable property.

20 Exception: enforcement of charge before administration

- (1) If, before the beginning of the administration of a company, a secured creditor, receiver, or other person, has, for the purpose of enforcing a charge on property of the company, done any of the things specified in subclause (2),—

- (a) nothing in clauses 2 or 18 prevents the secured creditor, receiver, or other person from enforcing the charge in relation to the property; and
- (b) clause 10 does not apply in relation to a transaction or dealing that affects the property and is entered into—
 - (i) in the exercise of a power of the secured creditor as secured creditor; or

- (2) Subclause (1) does not apply in a case to which clause 23 applies.

27 Interim order

If an application is made to the Court for an order under clause 25, the Court may, if in the opinion of the Court it is desirable to do so, before considering the application, grant an interim order (being an order of the kind applied for) that is expressed to have effect pending the determination of the application.

Methods of holding meetings

3 Methods of holding meetings

A meeting of creditors may be held—

- (b) set out the text of any resolution to be submitted to the meeting; and
- (c) include a voting paper in respect of each such resolution and voting and mailing instructions; and
- (d) state that if a creditor votes by casting a postal vote in respect of a resolution that is to be submitted to the meeting and a different resolution is submitted to the meeting,—
 - (i) the creditor's postal vote is invalid in respect of that different resolution; but
 - (ii) the creditor may vote, in respect of that different resolution, either by being present in person or by proxy.

6 Effect of irregularity, etc, in notice

An irregularity in or a failure to receive a notice of a meeting of creditors does not invalidate anything done by a meeting of creditors if—

- (a) the irregularity or failure is not material; or
- (b) all the creditors entitled to attend and vote at the meeting attend the meeting without protest as to the irregularity or failure; or
- (c) all such creditors agree to waive the irregularity or failure.

- (2) At any meeting of creditors, if the administrator or liquidator or any nominee of the administrator or liquidator, as is applicable, is not present, or if there is no administrator or liquidator holding office for the time being, the creditors participating must choose 1 of their number to act as the chairperson of the meeting.
- (3) The person convening a meeting under clause 3(c) must do everything necessary that would otherwise be done by the person chairing a meeting.

9 Quorum

- (1) A quorum for a meeting of creditors is present if—
 - (a) 3 creditors who are entitled to vote or their proxies are present or have cast postal votes; or
 - (b) if the number of creditors entitled to vote does not exceed 3, the creditors who are entitled to vote or their proxies are present or have cast postal votes.
- (2) If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting is adjourned to the same day in the following week at the same time and place, or to such other date, time, and place as the chairperson may appoint, and if, at the adjourned meeting, a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the creditors present or their proxies are a quorum.

10 Corporations may act by representatives

A body corporate that is a creditor may appoint a representative to attend a meeting of creditors on its behalf.

11 Keeping of record of attendance and minutes

- (1) The chairperson of a meeting of creditors, or in the case of a meeting held under clause 3(c), the person convening the meeting must—

- (4) No proxy is effective in relation to a meeting unless a copy of the notice of appointment is delivered to the administrator or liquidator, as the case may be, or, if no administrator or liquidator is acting in respect of a company in administration or liquidation, to the person by whom the notice convening the meeting was given, not less than 2 working days before the start of the meeting.

15 Limits on holder of proxy

- (1) Subject to subclause (2), no person acting under a proxy may vote in favour of or against any resolution that would place that person, either directly or indirectly, in a position to receive any benefit out of the assets of the company otherwise than as a creditor rateably with the other creditors of the company.
- (2) Any person who holds a proxy to vote for the appointment of an administrator or liquidator, as the case may be, may use the proxy to vote in favour of the appointment of himself or herself as administrator or liquidator if it is not inconsistent with the terms of the proxy to do so.
- (3) If an administrator or liquidator, as the case may be, who holds a proxy cannot attend a meeting of creditors called under this Act, he or she may, in writing,

- nominate his or her partner (if the administrator or liquidator or the administrator or liquidator is a member of a partnership) or some person in his or her employment, to use the proxy on his or her behalf and in such manner as he or she may direct.
- (4) Nothing in subclause (3) authorises the person nominated to vote in a manner that would be in contravention of subclauses (1) and (2) if the administrator or liquidator had acted under the proxy personally.
